Dear Sir/Madam,

This office is in receipt of the Freedom of Information Request submitted on your behalf.

Please be advised that your request is granted to the extent records exist, are public records, can be identified, and are not exempt from disclosure.

Information not subject to disclosure shall be redacted from the public document pursuant to:

- * MCL 15.243 Sec 13 (1) (a) Information of a personal nature
- * MCL 15.243 Sec 13 (1) (d) records or information specifically described and exempted by statute
- * MCL 28.211-215, combined with Executive Order 2008-17 Michigan Criminal Justice Information Systems Police Council Act
- * MCL 780.818 William Van Regenmorter Crime Victim's Rights Act
- * MCL 780.313 Law Enforcement Body-Worn Camera Privacy Act
- * MCL 15.243 Sec 13 (1) (l) medical, counseling, or psychological facts or evaluation if the person's identity would be revealed

A Cost Itemization has been prepared for your request, and was recently published to you through NextRequest.

The Cost Itemization details the total estimated fee for the records as well as any deposit required prior to preparation of the records. You may pay:

- a. the total amount of the Cost Itemization which will result in your records being prepared and released as quickly as possible, or
- b. the 50% deposit amount noted on the Cost Itemization which will result in your records being prepared but not released until a second notice for the remaining balance has been sent and that subsequent payment is received.

In either case, please allow 1-2 business days for preparation of written records once payment has been received. Preparation and duplication of audio, video, and/or photographs will require additional processing time. Records will be sent when all requested records have been prepared and paid for.

The public summary of the City's FOIA procedures and guidelines, including the appeal process, is available free of charge from www.cityofwarren.org.
